

Application to vote by proxy due to employment

Voting by Proxy

Proxy voting means that if you aren't able to cast your vote in person, you can have someone you trust cast your vote for you.

You can use this form to apply to vote by proxy if your employment or your spouse or civil partner's employment means that you cannot vote in person.

In Scotland you must be 16 or over on polling day to vote in local elections and elections to the Scottish Parliament. You must be 18 or over to vote in elections to the UK Parliament and European Parliament.

How do I apply to vote by Proxy?

- You must ask someone who is willing and capable to be your proxy and vote on your behalf.
- Fill in the proxy vote application form. You must give a reason why you want to vote by proxy. You must get someone to support your application. See notes below for information on who can support your application.
- Make sure you all sections of the form are complete and supply your date of birth and signature. You need to give your date of birth and signature on this application form. This information is needed to prevent fraud. If you are unable to sign this form, please contact us.
- Return your form to
Electoral Registration Officer, 17A South Gyle Crescent, Edinburgh, EH12 9FL.
Telephone 0131 344 2500.
E-mail enquiries@lothian-vjb.gov.uk.

Your application form must arrive at the electoral registration office by 5pm, 11 working days before the poll when changing or cancelling an existing proxy, postal or postal proxy vote and by 5pm, 6 working days before the poll when applying for a new proxy vote.

If you are not already registered to vote, your application to register must have reached your Electoral Registration Office by midnight, 12 working days before the poll.

Who can support my application?

- If you have an employer, your employer or another authorised person at your workplace.
- If you are self-employed, a person who is aged 18 years or over, who knows you and is not related to you.

Your supporter will need to give their details in section 7 of the form. They must also complete either:

- 8A if you are employed; or
- 8B if you are self-employed; or
- 8C if you are the spouse or civil partner of an employed person; or
- 8D if you are the spouse or civil partner of a self-employed person.

In Scotland, your supporter can also be 16 or 17 years old for local elections and elections to the Scottish Parliament, but must be 18 or over to support your application for elections to the UK Parliament or European Parliament. If your supporter is 16 or 17 years old, they need to give details in section 7 of the form and complete either:

- 8E if you are employed; or
- 8F if you are self-employed; or
- 8G if you are the spouse or civil partner of an employed person; or
- 8H if you are the spouse or civil partner of a self-employed person.

Cont'd Over/....

What happens after I have returned this form?

- Your proxy must go to your local polling station to vote. If your proxy cannot get to the polling station, they can apply to vote for you by post. They can apply to do this by 5pm, 11 working days before the poll. They can contact the electoral registration office for more details and to request a further application form. For contact details, go to yourvotematters.co.uk.
- Your proxy will be sent a proxy poll letter, telling them where and when to vote on your behalf.
- You should let your proxy know how you want them to vote on your behalf, for example, which candidate, party or outcome.
- If it turns out that you are able to go to the polling station on polling day, you can vote in person as long as your proxy has not already done so or has not applied to vote for you by post.

Voting as Proxy

A person can only be a proxy for close relatives and up to two other people at an election or referendum.

Close relatives are the spouse, civil partner, parent, grandparent, brother, sister, child or grandchild of the applicant.

The person you wish to appoint as your proxy can only act as proxy if they are 18 or over (16 or over in Scotland at local elections and elections to the Scottish Parliament) and they are (or will be) registered for that election or referendum.

Privacy Statement

We will only use the information you give us for electoral purposes. We will look after personal information securely and we will follow the data protection legislation. We will not give personal information about you or any personal information you may provide on other people to anyone else or another organisation unless we have to by law.

The lawful basis to collect the information in this form is that it is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest and exercise of official authority as vested in the Electoral Registration Officer as set out in Representation of the People Act 1983 and associated regulations.

Some of the information that is collected in this form is classified as special category personal data. This is processed for reason of substantial public interest as set out in Representation of the People Act 1983 and associated regulations. To process this type of information the Data Controller must have a relevant policy document that sets out how this information will be handled.

The Electoral Registration Officer is the Data Controller: Graeme Strachan, 17A South Gyle Crescent, Edinburgh, EH12 9FL, 0131 344 2500.

You should refer to the Privacy Notice at www.lothian-vjb.gov.uk/privacy.html for further information relating to the processing of personal data.
